

Information from Letters or Interviews - Documentation Form

Date 4/16/03

Problem being researched: Raising voters Political Conscience so that citizens know that the vote can change problems like corruption.

1. Source of information.

Name: Rene Salazar

Address: PO Box 414 Nogales, AZ 85621

2. Request information about the problem.

a. How serious is this problem in our community? I believe that this problem is not too serious in our community, it is ok right now with the voters we have and voting will not end corruption.

b. How widespread is the problem in our state or nation? This problem is not widespread in our state or nation, people are voting in many parts of our state and nation.

c. Why is this a problem that should be handled by government? Should anyone else also take responsibility for solving the problem? Why? I think that the problem should be handled by the government. The government should handle this problem because the community are only doing this to obey them.

d. Which of the following do you think is true?

There is no law or policy for dealing with the problem. Yes No X

The law for dealing with the problem is not adequate. Yes No X

The law for dealing with the problem is adequate, but it is not being well enforced. Yes X No

e. What levels of government or governmental agencies, if any, are responsible for dealing with the problem? What are they doing about the problem? I believe that there is not any government or governmental agencies that are responsible for dealing with this problem.

f. What disagreements, if any, exist in our community about this problem? I believe that there is no disagreement in our community about this problem. Our community knows that there is not many people voting but the people who are responsible.

g. Who are the major individuals, groups, or organizations taking sides on the problem?

Why are they interested in the problem? They are interested in the problem to a certain point but this problem has not gotten many people interested in this problem.

What positions are they taking? The positions that they are taking is in a neutral position that are not against or in favor.

What are the advantages and disadvantages of their positions? We cannot say that there are advantages or disadvantages in this position because they are in a neutral position.

How can we get information on their positions? We can get information on their positions by visiting the Municipal building in Nogales Sonora Mexico.

How are they trying to influence government to adopt their solutions to the problem? They are not trying to influence the government to adopt a solution it is as if they don't care of this problem.

h. If our class develops a policy to deal with this problem, how might we influence our government to adopt our policy? You may influence the government to adopt your policy by getting many people in favor of our policy because as many are in favor the government are going to take action.